IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
O.O.C.J.

Suit No. 1143 of 1998

Dena Bank ..Plaintiff

vs.

Chellani Publishing House
(P) Ltd. and others ..Defendants.

Ms.Shilpa Kamble i/b M/s Shukla and Shukla for plaintiff.
Mr.R.M.Vanoo for defendants.

CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIKARI J
15th October,2007

P.C.

1. The parties have tendered the consent terms duly signed by the authorised representative of the plaintiffs Bank and the defendants. I am informed that defendant no.4 is present in Court.

2. Both sides satisfy me that the claim in the suit is settled and the proposal of the defendants has been accepted.

3. The sum payable is specified in clause 2 together with the manner in which the same has to be paid. In such circumstances, both sides make a joint request to pass the order in terms of the consent terms. The plaintiffs confirm that they have received the sum save and except the amount of Rs.1,66,000/- which has been deposited by the defendants with the Court Receiver, High Court, Bombay. The parties have agreed that this amount shoud also be paid over to the plaintiffs. Thus, upon this sum being handed over the claim of the plaintiffs in the suit stands fully satisfied. Consent terms are taken on record and marked as "X' for identification. Order in terms of the consent terms at X.

4. The Court Receiver is directed to pay over the sum lying with him to the plaintiffs without passing any account but on payment of usual costs, charges and expenses. Court Receiver to stand discharged accordingly. Suit is disposed of in terms of the consent terms.

5. Court Receiver to act on authenticated copy of this order.
